Therapies for Voice-Hearers

A Workshop of the Educational Voice-Hearing Network in the Collaborating Centre for Values-based Practice in Health and Social Care

The McInnes Room, The Warneford Hospital, Warneford Lane, Oxford OX3 7JX

Date: Wednesday 27 June. Time 12 (noon) – 5 pm

Aim: A wide variety of presentations will explore innovative therapies that can help people who hear voices.

12 am Arrival, registration and coffee
12.15 am Outline of the day, Dr Roz Austin
12.30 Dr Craig Steel, Reading University. The strengths and limitations of CBT for Voices.
1.20 pm Dr Roz Austin, Durham University. A reading from ‘Emily’s Voices.’
1.40 pm Mary Coaten, Durham University. Dance movement therapy
2.20 pm Coffee break
2.40 pm Dr Mar Rus-Calfell, Oxford University. AVATAR therapy: a digital therapy to help people with distressing voices.
3.30 pm Working group: The Educational Voice-Hearing Network
5 pm Closing

To book a place simply email Roz – rozaustin2017@gmail.com